6. In the unlikely event of Dalhousie Adventure cancelling a trip, before departure, all trip costs paid will be refunded in full. This will be the full extent of Dalhousie Adventures liability. However, if our cancellation is due to 'force majeure' any reasonable expenses we have incurred will be deducted from your refund. (War, civil, natural or political unrest is usually known as force majeure). All refunds and compensation are strictly limited to monies paid to us and we are not liable for any expenses you have incurred as a result of this booking.
7. We reserve the right to alter prices without any previous notice and we are bound to augment the same. We also reserve the right to make alterations to a trip without notice including alterations to the itinerary
8. The tour leader or local ground operator who represents Dalhousie Adventure has overriding authority on our Camp / adventure activities. By signing our booking form you also agree to do this. If you commit any illegal act or if in the opinion of the tour leader or ground operator your behaviour is detrimental to the safety and welfare of the group as a whole you may be asked to leave the Camp / adventure activity without any right to refund.
9. The Client / Participant also undertakes to comply with the national and local laws and regulations, whether in respect of health, environment, or any other matter of all the places, territories visited during the trip.
10. We reserve the right to deviate from the agreed expedition route if in our reasonable opinion such deviation is necessary for the safety or wellbeing of any or any one of the members of the expedition or for the satisfactory progress of the expedition.
11. We accept no responsibility for matters arising out of political disputes, border closures, epidemics, natural disasters, climate, armed robbery, terrorism etc. Should it become necessary to abandon an expedition because of such an event we will be entitled to retain such monies received as is necessary to cover costs incurred. Any excess, if any, will be refunded.

12. The Client / Participant accepts that owing to all expeditions involve an element of personal risk and are of a potentially hazardous and unpredictable nature and that the local emergency facilities are usually of a very limited nature. Hospitals outside of large cities often have no accident and emergency facilities and emergency transport facilities can be non-existent. The Client / Participant agrees to indemnify us and our suppliers against any claim or demand made in respect of any accident, personal injury or loss of life caused to, contracted or suffered by the Client / Participant during the course of the expedition.
13. In the event of any Client / Participant leaving the trip of their own accord or in extenuating circumstances being asked to leave by the tour leader or local ground operator, that person will be liable for their own maintenance and expenses and have no claim against us whatsoever.
14. The decision of the tour leader will be final on all matters relating to the satisfactory progress, organization and wellbeing of the tour. Client / Participant must comply with all reasonable requests of the tour leader. If in the opinion of the Tour Leaders or members/ partners, the health or conduct of any Client / Participant at any time appears likely to endanger the safe, comfortable or happy progress of a trip, the Client / Participant may be excluded from all or part of the trip without refund or recompense. In the case of ill-health Dalhousie Adventure may make such arrangements as it sees fit and recover the costs thereof from the Client / Participant. If a Client / Participant commits an illegal act the Client / Participant may be excluded from the trip and Dalhousie Adventure shall cease to have responsibility to/for them. No refund will be given for any unused services.
15. No servant, agent or authorized representative has authority to commit us to any liability whatsoever and Dalhousie Adventure will not be bound by any statement or representation unless it is in writing and signed by one of the members / partners.
16. Client / Participant also assure Dalhousie Adventure that the Client / Participant have adequate travel insurance. It is the Client's / Participant's responsibility to arrange for suitable adventure travel insurance with benefits that include cover for any hazardous activities they intend to pursue, as well as personal accident, medical expenses, repatriation, loss and damage to personal effects and above all cover the evacuation of yourself from remote regions, should the need arise.
17. Client / Participant accept that any personal possessions such as valuables, cameras or any money that is carried on any of our ground operators vehicles or any other form of transport, or that is left in accommodation provided by Dalhousie Adventure or its suppliers during a trip are carried at the Client / Participant own risk. Dalhousie Adventures does not accept responsibility for Client's / Participant's personal possessions or valuables that are lost, damaged or stolen during the course of a tour.
18. Client / Participant must reimburse Dalhousie Adventure for any expenses incurred by us on behalf of the client. In particular, this applies to non-compliance with Booking Conditions.
19. Any complaints with regard to the trip must be immediately brought to the attention of the tour leader, ground operators or hotelier so that the necessary action to rectify the matter can be taken. However, if by the end of the tour you still feel you have a valid complaint you must notify Dalhousie Adventure, in writing, within 14 days of the end of your tour, so they can be effectively dealt with. All dispute shall be resolved amicably and the provision of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act shall apply only. All disputes shall be subject to Distt. Chamba Jurisdiction only.
20. On signing and providing us the Booking Form, Medical Certificate, Risk Form, Undertaking Form you show your willingness to accept our terms and conditions and also declare that the statement made in all the said Form are true and correct and you have not concealed any fact.

Trip Grading and General Information

- 1 Trekking, Jungle and Walking Safari activities for active person, pre departure hikes and regular exercises are highly recommended. Daily walking 5 to 7 hrs.
- 2 Treks involving mountain passes and clients must not only be physically fit but also be able to cope with the unexpected. Daily walking 6 - 8 hrs occasionally 9 - 10 hrs
- 3 Treks involving High Mountain passes above 9000ft. and peak climbing, clients must be physically very fit and very well prepared and be able to cope with difficult conditions. Daily walking 6 - 9 hrs occasionally 9 - 12 hrs.

Please remember the fitter and more prepared you are the more enjoyment you will get out of your trip

Quality You will find our tours are not only very competitive but also of a high standard. Please be aware that standards differ greatly in different parts of the world, especially so in the more remote areas. This unique combination has been made possible, by our detailed knowledge of the destinations and highly experienced ground operators.

Remoteness Some areas in which we operate are very remote. Consequently the lifestyles on these tours are necessarily very different from that of an ordinary holiday. If you are not prepared or willing to accept this, you should not travel on these long, remote treks.

Baggage On the majority of treks all your trek baggage will be self carried or in some circumstances by porters or pack animals. You need only carry a small daypack for your essentials. We will appreciate if you restricted your baggage to around 12 to 14 kg on the trek. Items not required during the trek can be left in a locked bag at the hotel.
NO SUITCASES PLEASE.

Equipment All basic communal camping equipment will be supplied by us. This includes all cooking and eating utensils, two / four-man tents, sleeping bags dining tent, table and stools, foam mats and toilet tent. You will need to bring a walking boots (hunter shoes or D.M.S are recommended), daypack, light torch, woollen cloths, wind sheet / waterproof jacket, and other personal items.

Accommodation This cost is always part of the stated price, whether in hotels or camping. Hotels used in larger towns are at least tourist-class and chosen for their most convenient location and facilities. Twin rooms with private bathrooms are normally provided unless special requests have been made. Hotels in smaller places are the best available.

Health We recommend you have a medical and dental check up and strongly recommend immunization. Check with your nearest travel clinic.

Trek Staff On all our treks we take an experienced team of guides, cooks, and porters or animal drivers. The guides will assist at all times, and will encourage you to walk at your own pace.

Itineraries Detailed itineraries are available on our website or we can send you one on special request. On our holidays local weather, politics, transport or a host of other factors can mean a change in itinerary. It is very unlikely that an itinerary would be substantially altered, but should this become necessary your leader will decide the best alternative, in consultation with you.
